Period for Reply

A SHORTENED STATUTORY PERIOD FOR REPLY IS SET TO EXPIRE 3 MONTH(S) FROM THE MAILING DATE OF THIS COMMUNICATION.

- Extensions of time may be available under the provisions of 37 CFR 1.136(a). In no event, however, may a reply be timely filed after SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- If the period for reply specified above is less than thirty (30) days, a reply within the statutory minimum of thirty (30) days will be considered timely.
- If NO period for reply is specified above, the maximum statutory period will apply and will expire SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- Failure to reply within the set or extended period for reply will, by statute, cause the application to become ABANDONED (35 U.S.C. § 133). Any reply received by the Office later than three months after the mailing date of this communication, even if timely filed, may reduce any earned patent term adjustment. See 37 CFR 1.704(b).

DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

1. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

2. Claims 13, 14, 16 and 17 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Ristell et al ('925). The reference discloses the invention substantially as claimed; see Figure 2 and page 1, right column, lines 38-55. However, it does not disclose the use of a fabric as the pleated article. In lines 37-48 of the right column on page 1 of the reference it is disclosed that any material can be used as the pleated material. Therefore, it would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art to use any well-known material, such as fabric, as the pleated material in the reference depending on the desired structural and decorative properties of the article. The rivet 11 secures the ends of the pleats under compression and may also be considered a hanger opening in view of the aperture in the rivet.

3. Claims 1, 7, 13-16 and 18 rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Dabney 1,533,396. The reference discloses the invention substantially as claimed, namely a pleated article held together by a fastening means; see Figure 4 and lines 25-46. However, it does not disclose the use of a fabric as the pleated article. In lines 30-31 of the reference it is disclosed that any material can be used as the pleated material. Therefore, it would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art to use any well-known material, such as fabric, as the pleated material in the reference depending on the desired structural and decorative properties of the article.

Allowable Subject Matter

4. Claims 2-6, 8, 19 and 20 are objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.

Conclusion

5. Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.
